

DO YOU KNOW...a Girl Scout working towards her Gold Award is documenting the 350 year old tree that stands in front of the township owned historic structure at the corner of County Line and Folly Roads?

The tree provided shade for the students who attended the once occupied school house. When the Scout's work is complete, it will be filed with the Warrington Township Historic Commission and Society and will be able to be viewed on their respective web sites.